Advancing Women's Impact in Independent Schools

Guidelines for Recommenders

As you prepare your recommendation for this candidate, we ask you to consider and address the following:

- In what context do you know this applicant?
- What are the applicant's current job responsibilities? How has the applicant handled the expectations of her role?
- How has this applicant contributed to your school community?
- Does this applicant exhibit leadership potential? If so, how?
- What personal and professional qualities distinguish this applicant from others in your school community?
- Where do you believe this applicant has the most opportunity for growth as part of this program?
